

The 2011 Regulations for Student Dress Code at King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok

The identity, prestige and dignity of students at King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok are represented by King Mongkut's signature and seal granted to the university by His Majesty King Bhumibol Adulyadej, the present King. The university also became a government tertiary education institution according to the 2007 Act of King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok.

Considering the unique features and the proposition in section 22 (2) and section 65 of the 2007 Act of King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok in conjunction with the resolution of the university council in the meeting no. 5/2011 on 22 July 2010, the university then enacts the following regulations:

Item 1 These regulations are called "the 2011 Regulations for Student Dress Code at King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok"

Item 2 These regulations are effective on the next day after the official announcement by the university.

Item 3 The 2004 Regulations of King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok on Student Discipline are, henceforth, annulled.

These regulations also replace any other rules and regulations that contradict it.

Item 4 In these regulations, the following terms of reference are used:

"University" refers to King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok.

"Faculty" refers to the organization as stated in the 2009 Announcement of King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok about the establishment of the learning and teaching organizations at King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok.

"President" refers to the President of King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok.

"Students" refers to the students of King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok.

"Full-time student curricula" refers to the curricula the university council approves to organize courses during the government office hours at the undergraduate level and the degree that will be granted after graduation within the specified period of education.

"Part-time student curricula" refers to the curricula the university council approves to organize courses after government office hours (evening schedule) at the undergraduate level and the degree that will be granted after graduation within the specified period of education.

“Ceremony” refers to the ceremonies the university or other organizations arrange to celebrate special events or festivals, but which are not considered to be official government or royal ceremonies.

“Royal ceremony” refers to a traditional royal ceremony that is commemorated regularly each year.

“Government ceremony” refers to a traditional ceremony regularly held by the government.

“Being polite” refers to the quality of being neat, polite and conducting oneself with propriety, in accordance with university regulations for student discipline and/or traditional requirements

Item 5 According to these regulations, the President is responsible for supervision and holds the authority to issue or state additional principles in enforcing the regulations. In the event that problems arise in considering or interpreting these regulations, the President will be the only authorized person to make the final judgment. His or her judgment is thus considered final.

Section 1

General Section

Item 6 Regarding student uniforms, emblems and clothing, these regulations apply to students who are studying at the undergraduate level in any full-time student programs. However, undergraduate students who are studying in the part-time student programs may wear these student uniforms, emblems and clothing or dress politely and appropriately.

Item 7 The wearing of student uniforms, emblems and clothing which is different from those stated in this regulation will be announced by the university or the faculty on a case-by-case basis.
